

Refund and Cancellation Policy 2020

Foundations of Herbalism Program

Refunds: All deposits are non-refundable.

Thirty days before the first class: A full refund of any tuition payments made (less non-refundable deposit) is available upon receipt of a written request by post or e-mail.

Fewer than 30 days before the first class: Tuition credit for any tuition payments made (less non-refundable deposit) is available upon receipt of written request by post or e-mail. Tuition credit (not deposit credits) may be applied to future BotanoLogos programs if space is available. Credits expire after twelve months.

After the first class: After the first weekend of the Foundations of Herbalism Program, no tuition refunds are possible. If a student must drop out of the program for any reason, any payment arrangements remain in effect and payment in full is due according to the terms of your promissory note.

Cancellations: In case of an emergency, such as severe weather or illness, it may be necessary to cancel a class and reschedule for a later date. If a class is cancelled, we will contact you at the telephone number you have provided on your program application. Should unforeseen circumstances require that a class be cancelled, we will do our best to reschedule at a time that is convenient for all enrolled students. However, we reserve the right to make the final choice of dates for all rescheduled classes. In the event that a student cannot attend a rescheduled class, no refunds will be given. Upon request, we will issue a tuition credit to be applied to a future class. Credits expire after twelve months.